

Community Resources: Crisis Response & Support

Central Arizona Crisis Response Network (Mobile Crisis Team)

Phone: 602-222-9444 or Toll Free 800-631-1314

Services: Partners with local community providers to help individuals where they are. The crisis specialists can send a mobile team of trained crisis intervention specialists to individuals during mental health or substance use crisis. The mobile team will meet the person, complete an assessment, and help them solve the solution. A mobile team can also meet people in the community and take them to a safe place.

Population: All ages

EMPACT- Suicide Prevention Center

Phone: 480-784-1500

Hours: 24 hours/7 days a week

Services: Mobile Crisis Team provides assessment, intervention, support, and referral services available at home or in the community.

Population: All Ages

Terros Mobile Crisis

Phone: 1-800-631-1314

Services: Terros Health Mobile Crisis provides assessment, intervention, and connection to ongoing care resources. The Mobile Crisis Team works with people to address situations such as self-harm, traumatic experiences, recent loss, potential harm to others, suicidal thoughts, increased depression and anxiety.

Population: All Ages

Payment: No Cost

