

Mrs. Malin's Top Five Character Strengths

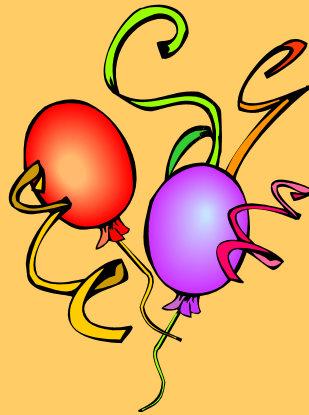

Love

Love of Learning

Humor

Openness

Kindness

Celebrating Strengths at Mirada

It is our desire to inspire children with a love of learning that will last a life time and help them to develop into thoughtful, caring, ethical individuals who will make a positive difference in the world. Therefore we believe it is important to build strength of character. We celebrate and build upon 24 different character strengths. Here are my top five strengths.