

MARBURY V. MADISON

Jefferson (Republican) defeats _____ (Federalist) in the _____ of 1800.

On his last day, _____ fills courts with as many _____ as possible.

Jefferson becomes _____ the next day but some of Adams' _____ have _____ yet received their official forms. Jefferson says they _____ be judges.

_____ orders James Madison (Secretary of State) not to give the _____ to the _____.

William Marbury is one of the _____ affected by Jefferson's _____.

Marbury demands that the _____ examine the case and _____ the executive branch to hand out the _____.

John Marshall, the chief _____ and a Federalist, listens to _____ case.

Marshall agrees that Marbury has been _____.

_____ would allow Supreme Court to _____ Madison in making Marbury a _____.

Marbury says the _____ gives the _____ the right to do this.

Marshall decides that _____ the government to make Marbury Judge would be _____.

Marshall has to _____ is this _____ or _____?

Marshall's ruling _____ Review – Supreme Court can _____ act of _____ unconstitutional.

Judicial _____ has _____ the Supreme Court's _____ authority making it a much _____.